bit about that case and he explained to me that Duane Earl Pope was schizophrenic and there were some problems like that. He told me where he was, and I said, oh, Bob, I hope you write a book about this someday because it was just a fascinating story. And every time I'd run into him I'd say, have you started that book yet? Well, obviously, Bob ran out of time but I hope that somebody writes a book about Bob Crosby and about LaVon Crosby and their service to this state because I think they have been a huge influence and a good influence. Bob Crosby was a strong man, with strong convictions and, yet, the most gentle of souls, and what I loved best, I think, was his sense of humor. Everybody probably is nodding their heads on that one because he always made everything easier with his really unique sense of humor. Thank you.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Thank you, Senator Schimek, for that. Do any others wish to speak? Senator Kristensen, would you like to close on your resolution?

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: I would move adoption of the resolution.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Thank you. All in favor of adoption of LR 292 vote aye, opposed nay. Record, Mr. Clerk.
